Law Enforcement

By: Keiarra Daniels

The Law Enforcement shop students assisted the Kingston Police Department with their second annual Teen Buckle-Up Campaign. Kingston Police applied for and reviewed a grant to educate teen drivers on the importance of using their seat belts. Law Enforcement students handed out brochures to help educate the teen drivers. Thank you all who participated.

Abby's Drama Corner

Hello, it's Abigail again. I have some great news, we finished the "Midsummers Jersey" sign and put it up in front of the Wyoming Area High school. Remember on Sunday, October 23rd from 12pm-5pm at the Wyoming Area Secondary Center Cafeteria at 20 Memorial Street, Exeter PA. Tickets are $8.00, Walk-ins Welcome! Take-out available. I'm selling tickets, if you want a ticket you can give me the $8 and I will give you the ticket/tickets the next day. I will be getting more candy to sell for $1. Hope to see you at the Pasta Dinner and Craft Fair. -Abigail

Café is Open!

By: Morgan Bowers

10-21-16 was the day the café reopened the café has been reconstructed and redone. Ernie Pender said "some of the customers coming today are people that have helped us made the new café possible". They provided the money for the new equipment; he had continued to say that the sponsors had donated a new oven. Different shops participated in helping renovate the café such as Carpentry and other shops.

Student Experience Pt. 2

By: Keiarra Daniels

We have interviewed James M. a 9th grader at West side CTC some questions. Why did you come to West Side CTC rather than your sending school? Answer- I want to make family proud and follow in family footsteps. What is different from your sending school than West Side CTC? Answer- more hands on experience in field of study. Does your shop influence what your career choice will be outside of high school? Answer- yes. That is all from James. M

We have interview Kimberly S. 9th grader at Multi-Media some questions. Our first question was why did you come to West Side CTC rather than you sending school? Answer- a better choice. What is different from your sending school tan West Side CTC? Answer- you get better choices and more opportunities. Does your shop influences what your career choice will be outside of high school? Answer- Yes because she will know what to do and have a better opportunity. That is all from Kimberly.

We interviewed another 9th grader named Gabrielle J. her shop CIT. Why did you come to West Side CTC? Answer- I want to further my education in my field of study. Another question asked is what is the difference from your sending school and West Side CTC? Answer- It has DE; it's a better learning experience and less peer conflicts. Does your shop influence what your career choice will be outside of High school? Answer- Yes.
