Missing Teacher?

By: Larissa Grady

Since December, a lot of the students here at West Side CTC have had the same question, "Where in the world is Ms. Arcarese?"

She had frequent absences and ended up not showing up at all throughout the month of December.

Students recently found out that she had retired and after the students having to deal with a "long-term sub", they finally got a permanent teacher, named Mrs. Hampton.

It is her first year ever teaching and we wish her good luck, and we also wish for Ms. Arcarese to have a happy and healthy retirement.
